

Brief News to the Trade Press:

Rodney Farmer elected as new EPSM Board Member

06th July 2017

At the recent EPSM Annual General Meeting in Copenhagen, Rodney Farmer (based in the Czech Republic) was elected as an EPSM board member. He replaced David Rintel (Slovakia), who did not stand for re-election.

Rodney, a US citizen with more than 20 years of experience in the European payments market, has served also as EPSM representative at the global PCI SSC Board of Advisors since 2015.

“Rodney will provide very valuable input into the work of the EPSM. On this occasion, I also want to thank David very much for his constructive support in the recent years”, says Nicolas Adolph, chairman of the EPSM. The remaining four board members are from Germany (Nicolas Adolph, Christian Meyer), the United Kingdom (Iain High) and Greece (Tony Sillopoulos).

About the EPSM:

The European trade association EPSM represents the interests of payment service providers for merchants. It works as a cost-effective interest representation and general information exchange on payment issues relevant to its members.

Since its founding in April 2005, the specialized EPSM has grown to 68 EPSM members with headquarters in 16 European countries. The 41 voting members are mainly payment network operators, acquirers, and internet payment providers. The additional 27 non-voting members are the major card schemes, processors, and terminal manufacturers and several banks with significant card acquiring business.

The association has been in contact with the European Commission, the ECB, the EBA, and other European and national organisations and has actively taken part in several consultation proceedings. EPSM representatives are also active in the EU Payment Systems Market Expert Group (PSMEG) and the global PCI SSC Board of Advisors (PCI BoA).

The services for members include three meetings per year with external speakers, up-to-date information by e-mail, a homepage with a non-public intranet and a regular “EPSM Market Research Newsletter”.
